

AMENDMENT 4 FAQ

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is Amendment 4?

The Voting Restoration Amendment was the fourth proposed Constitutional Amendment on the 2018 General Election ballot. This amendment started as a citizen initiative which made ballot position through the collection of over 842,000 petition signatures. The amendment passed with 64.55% of the vote and will now be part of Florida's Constitution with an effective date of January 8, 2019.

BALLOT SUMMARY: This amendment restores the voting rights of Floridians with felony convictions after they complete all terms of their sentence including parole or probation. The amendment would not apply to those convicted of murder or sexual offenses, who would continue to be permanently barred from voting unless the Governor and Cabinet vote to restore their voting rights on a case by case basis. See also Section 98.0751, Florida Statutes.

How do I know if my voting rights have been restored?

A

It is the voter's responsibility to confirm whether or not their voting rights have been automatically restored. Search or apply for your Restoration of Civil Rights certificate through the Florida Commission on Offender Review, Office of Executive Clemency.

How will the Supervisor of Elections handle voter registration applications now with Amendment 4?

The Calhoun County Supervisor of Elections office will accept and process voter registration applications as usual. Applications will be accepted from individuals with prior felony convictions who are newly eligible to register pursuant to the terms of Amendment 4. Voters who have previously been removed from the voter rolls due to a felony conviction must re-register to vote starting January 8, 2019.

My Voting rights have been restored. Do I need to do anything before I can vote?

Yes. You must register to vote before you can participate in any election. State law requires all voters to be registered at least 29 days prior to Election Day. You may register:

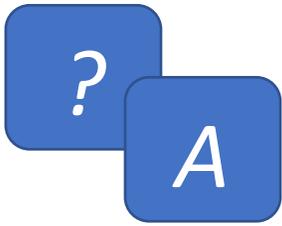

- At the Supervisor of Elections Office
- At a voter registration agency
- By mail (visit www.votecalhoun.com to print the form)
- Online at www.FlaglerElections.com/vote (Requires a Florida Driver's License or Florida ID Card)
- At a community voter registration event

NOTE: Florida law requires any convicted felon who wishes to register to vote to complete all terms sentencing pursuant to Section 98.0751, F.S. before registering to vote.

If I was removed from the voter rolls due to a felony conviction, will I automatically be re-registered to vote now?

No. If a voter's name has been removed from the voting rolls due to a felony conviction, the individual must re-register to vote. Please note that our office will not be contacting individuals regarding this issue. Help us to spread the word by sharing this flyer and encourage your friends and family to contact the Supervisor of Elections office in their county of residence.

I registered to vote – what happens now?

You should receive a new Voter Information Card from our office within a few weeks of registering. If you don't receive this, please contact our office to make sure we have your correct address. After registering, voters must keep their registration up to date. Voters can update their address and other information any time at VoteCalhoun.com, call or visit the office.

HOW TO VOTE

A GUIDE FOR FIRST TIME VOTERS

1. Each voter receives a paper ballot. Use the pen provided to mark your ballot. When voting by mail, use a black ballpoint pen. If you make a mistake on your ballot or overvote a race, ask for help. Florida law states you may have up to 2 replacement ballots. If voting my mail, call the Elections Office if you make a mistake.

2. When finished voting, place your voted ballot inside the secrecy sleeve. Take your ballot to the ballot box and insert the ballot into the slot designated on the top of the machine. If voting by mail, follow the instructions provided to return your voted ballot to the Elections Office. Mail ballots must be received by 7:00 P.M. on Election Day in order to be counted.
